

T.D. 4423 is in full as follows:

Section 16 of Regulations 9 as amended by Treasury Decision 15, approved July 11, 1933, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Sec. 16. (a) The name of the manufacturer of the fermented liquor and the place of manufacturer must be embossed on, or indented in, metal barrels or kegs. The name of the manufacturer and the place of manufacture must be branded by burning on the side across the staves, and must extend over sixty per cent or more of the circumference, of wooden barrels or kegs containing fermented liquor. The branding must be of sufficient depth and size so that it may not be scraped from barrels without leaving traces to indicate scraping.

No wooden barrel or keg which has been rebranded across the staves and no wooden barrel or keg which has the name of more than one manufacturer branded thereon may be used by a brewer as a container for fermented liquor, provided that the removal and replacement of one or more staves by the brewer whose name and address are originally so branded on a barrel or keg shall not be deemed to be a rebranding hereunder.

Each bottle containing fermented liquors must be labeled, and each closed case of bottles must be labeled or branded, showing, in clearly legible figures and letters, the following:

- (1) The name of the manufacturer;
- (2) The location of the brewery, by city, or town, and state;
- (3) The serial number of the basic permit under which the fermented liquor is produced;
- (4) The special name of the liquor, if any. (The use of the words beer, ale, porter, lager, bock, stout, etc., is permissible on such labels);
- (5) "Taxpaid at the rate prescribed by Internal Revenue Law" or "Internal Revenue Tax Paid."

Wooden or metal barrels and kegs must also bear labels or brands, or be embossed or indented, showing the data in the above items Numbers 3 and 4.

(b) Where such fermented liquor is bottled or marketed by a distributor or dealer, and it is not desired to disclose on the label the name of the actual manufacturer, the label above-described must contain all the prescribed data, except that the name and address of the bottler, distributor or dealer may be substituted for the name and address of the actual manufacturer.

(c) If the name of a distributor appears on the label in addition to the name of the manufacturer, the distributor's name must be preceded by the phrase "Packed for _____" or "Distributed by _____."

(d) Attention is called to the fact that under the Food and Drugs Act the name and other data on the labels may not imply a foreign origin of the fermented liquor, —unless such name or data are followed by the word "type" or "style," or the other data on the label clearly show the domestic origin of the fermented liquor.

(e) Copies of the labels are not required to be submitted to the Supervisor or the Commissioner unless requested.

D.S. BISS,

Commissioner of Industrial Alcohol.

GUY T. HELVERING,

Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: March 13, 1934,

H. MORGENTHAU, Jr.,

Secretary of the Treasury.
